

What's Happening Behind the Tiny Window?

Faith and Harris can see a tiny golden window glowing high in the tree, but what do you think is happening on the other side?
Using the window frame below, draw what you imagine might be happening inside.

Who lives here? What are they doing? What is the funniest thing in the room?

